

Additional contribution and investment Guarantee fee

The following information sets out the additional contribution Guarantee fee that applies to MyNorth Super and the additional investment Guarantee fee that applies to MyNorth Investment. Refer to the current disclosure documents available from northonline.com.au for further information.

MyNorth Super members

The additional contribution Guarantee fee is only applicable if you have selected the Protected Growth, Protected Investment or Protected Retirement guarantee and contribute, roll over or transfer amounts in excess of the annual contribution threshold. The contribution threshold for additional contributions, rollovers and transfers is set at the end of the initial investment period (described in Part B of the PDS). The contribution threshold is initially 15% pa of your investments made during the initial investment period.¹ Any contribution into your account that is over the contribution threshold will incur an additional contribution Guarantee fee. We recommend that you refer to this table whenever you are making a contribution in excess of the contribution threshold, to ensure you are aware of the applicable additional contribution Guarantee fee. We reserve the right to alter the additional contribution Guarantee fee that applies to your account up to the maximum allowable under the Fund's Trust Deed.

MyNorth Guarantee investors

The additional investment Guarantee fee applies to MyNorth investors who have selected the Protected Growth or Protected Investment guarantee. It applies to all investments made into your IDPS account after the initial investment period. We recommend that you refer to this table whenever you are making an investment after the initial investment period, to ensure you are aware of the applicable additional investment Guarantee fee. We reserve the right to alter the additional investment Guarantee fee that applies to your account.
